IN GOD WE TRUST

DON'T TREAD ON ME

Today, a standard of truth is required in this country and shall be raised. This requirement is needed both spiritually as well as constitutionally. I challenge and God charges that each man that recognizes truth stand up and be counted.

For those that are ashamed of the truth, of them shall the truth be ashamed as well.

I am absolutely amazed at the absolute ignorance that the average individual is possessed by when it comes to the theology of Christian religion as pertaining to sex.

When I had first decided upon writing this expose, I had the notion of displaying the most vulgar representation of sexual immorality possible via the Internet as a tool to derive the utmost graphic literary exposure of whoredom humanly possible. As I explored all which is available to any child that might enter the library or play with the computers at school, I was amazed to find unwholesome images. On the glories of liberal entertainment were only beginning! Women were the only ones. Scores of sodomite men insinuated every sort animal that would let them, and utilized every sort of beast possible! Examine as I might, I still could not find the reasoning behind the minds that insist that such things are culturally stimulating and essential to the preservation of the freedoms of the land.

Then it dawned on me, a scripture as pertaining unto the last days as found in the book of Revelation: And when they shall have finished their testimony, the beast shall ascend out of the bottomless pit shall make war against them, and shall overcome them, and kill them. And their dead bodies shall lie in the street of the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom of Egypt, where also our Lord was crucified. Rev. 11:7-8

As it is written, the thing that hath been, it is that which shall be; and that which is done is that which shall be done: and there is no new thing under the sun. Is there anything whereof it may be said, See this is new? It hath been already of old time, which was before us. Eccl. 1:9-10

No, there is nothing new under the sun, the evils which were present when Sodom and Gomorrah were destroyed are yet with us today. They will be present with us until the Day of the Lord. These are the forces of evil that pervert the hearts and minds of man and lead them ultimately to damnation and destruction. I challenge anyone that possesses any degree of sanity and morality to type in "bestiality" or type in "lolitas" and surf into the rampant pedophilia and tell me that it is a violation of our Constitution to filter this filth to prevent its infiltration into the minds of our youth. There is no affidavit resistance to this action for one reason, the devil doesn't want it exterminated and his people are willing to fight over it while God's people don't know that they're supposed to.

As for however continuing in the expose' of the vulgarity of the world, I have discerned that Paul said it best when saying, And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. For it is a shame even to speak of those things which are done of them in secret. Eph. 5:11-12

No, I speak accordingly as in which God would have known of His principles and the reasoning thereof behind the laws of sexuality:

1-You were created with the inborn desire for a mate for the express purpose of replenishing the earth.

2-This desire is as natural and as part of your human nature that God has creatively instilled within you to give you greater pleasure out of the gift of love God instituted through marriage as is hunger and thirst which compel thee to satisfy them.

3-The gift of sexuality can be perverted and in a male a life is.

4-The gift of sexuality in order to fulfill its greatest potential in both pleasure and blessing, is instituted by God to be explored and shared by heterosexual adults in a monogamous manner until the fulfillment of "til death do us part" is fulfilled.

5-Sexuality when abused leads to Divine Judgments against a creature that hath openly rebelled against the laws of God and nature in the forms of disease, defilement of personage in soul and spirit, jealousy, mental aggravation, grief, sorrow, bitterness, hatred, violence, homicide, loss of respect by both self and others, and ultimately eternal damnation form on High.

For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness.

Because that which may be known of God is manifest in them; for God hath shewed it unto them. For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse; Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as a God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened. Professing themselves to be wise they became fools. And changed the glory of the incorruptible God into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and fourfooted beasts, and creeping things.

Wherefore God also gave them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their own hearts, to dishonor their own bodies between themselves; Who changed the truth of God into a lie, and worshipped and served the creature more than the Creator, who is blessed forever. Amen.

For this cause God gave them up unto vile affections: for even their women did change the natural use into that which was against nature: And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust toward another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving themselves that recompense of their error which was meet.

And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to their own devices: Who knowing the judgment of God, that they which commit such things are worthy of death, do not only do the same, but have pleasure in them that do them. Ro. 1:18-32

Therefore thou art inexcusable, O man, whosoever thou art that judgest: for wherein thou judgest another, thou condemnest thyself; for thou that judgest doest the same things. But we are sure that the judgment of God is according to truth against them which commit such things. And thou that thou this, O man, that thou judgest, that thou doest things, that thou shalt escape the judgment of God?

Or despisest thou the riches of his goodness and forbearance and longsuffering; not knowing that the goodness of God leadeth thee to repentance? But after thy hardness and impenitent heart treasurest up unto thyself wrath against the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God;

Who will render to every man according to his deeds: To them who by patient continuance in well doing seek for glory and honor and immortality, eternal life:

But unto them that are contentious, and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, indignation and wrath, Tribulation and anguish, upon every soul of man that doeth evil, of the Jew first, and also of the Gentile; But glory, honor, and peace, to every man that worketh good, to the Jew first, and also to the Gentile: For there is no respect of persons with God.

For as many as have sinned without law shall also perish without law: and as many as have sinned in the law shall be judged by the law; (For not the hearers of the law are just before God, but the doers of the law shall be justified.

For when the Gentiles, which have not the law, do by nature the things contained in the law, these, having not the law, are a law unto themselves: Who show the work of the law written in their hearts, their conscience also bearing witness, and their thoughts the mean while accusing or else excusing one another.) In the day when God shall judge the secrets of men by Jesus Christ according to my gospel. Ro. 2:1-16

Today, it seems that many people are under the false assumption that the first verse in Roman's chapter two refers to the idea that all men are bi-sexual pedophile copralagnous [poop-eaters] bestialians and it is your duty not to judge such conduct for the man that follows the path of righteousness via his love for one woman is no better than the bisexual in the eyes of God. This is not what he was saying. When he wrote this, he was referring to those that were not born-again nor part of God's Kingdom, and even they that crucified the Lord Jesus Christ. Though the conscience of many will reject the idea that immorality is filthy and spiritually damning, the fact of the matter is that it is both.

1 - It is physically unhealthy and dangerous. Why a woman would want to turn her mind and body over unto the active participation of whoredom is nothing short of spiritual possession of an unclean spirit. It is the same with a whoremonger, for as you've read God is not a respecter of persons. My son, keep my words, and lay up my commandments with thee. Keep my commandments, and live; and my law as the apple of thine eye.

Bind them upon thy fingers, write them upon the table of thine heart.

Say unto wisdom, Thou art my sister; and call understanding thy kinswoman:

That they may keep thee from the strange woman, from the stranger which flattereth with her words. For at the window of my house I looked through my casement, And beheld among the simple ones, I discerned among the youths, a young man void of understanding, Passing through the street near her corner; and he went way to her house, In the twilight, in the evening, in the black and dark night: And behold, there met him a woman with the attire of an harlot, and subtle of heart. (She is loud and stubborn; her feet abide not in her house: Now is she without, now in the streets, and peth in wait at every corner. She is crafty, and she hath sent him away, and with an impudent face said unto him, I have peace offerings with me; this day have I paved my vows. Therefore came I forth to meet thee, diligently to seek thy face, and I have found thee. I have decked my bed with coverings of tapestry, with carved works, with fine linen of Egypt. I have perfumed my bed with myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon. Come, let us take our fill of love until the morning: let us solace ourselves with loves. He hath taken a bag of money with him, and will carry home as he will day appointed. With her much fair speech she caused him to yield, with the flattering of her lips she forced him. He goeth after her straightway, as an ox goeth to the slaughter, or as a fool the the correction of the stocks; Till a dart strike through his liver; as a bird hasteth to the snare, and knoweth not that it is for his life. Hearken unto me now therefore, O ye children, and attend to the words of my mouth. Let not thine heart decline to her ways, go not astray in her paths. For she hath cast down many wounded: Yea, many strong men have been slain by her. Her house is the way to hell, going down to the chambers of death. Prov. 7:1-27

Indeed, her way is treachery, and it leads to the many diseases God promised to keep you free from if you obey Him as well as the damnation promised if you don't. As it is written, Know therefore that the Lord thy God, he is God, the faithful God, which keepeth covenant and mercy with them that love him, and keep his commandments unto a thousand generations; And repayeth them that hate him to their face, to destroy them: he will not be slack to him that hateth him, he will repay him to his face. Thou shalt therefore keep the commandments, and the statutes, and the judgments, which I command thee this day, to do them. Wherefore it shall come to pass, if ye hearken to these judgements, and keep, and do them, that the Lord thy God shall keep unto thee the covenant and the mercy which he swore unto thy fathers: And he will love thee, and bless thee, and multiply thee, as he will also bless the fruit of thy womb, and the fruit of thy land, thy corn, and thy wine, and thine oil, the increase of thy kine, and the flocks of thy sheep, in the land which he swore unto thy fathers to give thee. Thou shalt be blessed above all people: there shall not be male or female barren among you, or among your cattle. And the Lord will take away from thee all sickness, and will put none of the evil diseases of Egypt [the world] which thou knowest, upon thee; but will bring upon all them that hate thee. Deut. 7:3-15.

And again we find written, My son attend unto my wisdom, and bow thine ear to my understanding: That thou mayest regard discretion, and that thy lips may keep knowledge. For lips of a strange woman drop as a honeycomb, and her mouth is smoother than oil: But her end is bitter as wormwood, sharp as a two-edged sword. Her feet go down to death; her steps take hold on hell. Lest thou shouldst ponder the path of life, her ways are moveable, that thou canst not know them. Hear me now therefore, O ye children, that ye depart not from the words of my mouth. Remove thy way far from her, and come not nigh the door of her house: Lest thou give thine honor unto others, and thy years unto the cruel: Lest strangers be filled with thy wealth; and thy labors be in the house of a stranger; And thou mourn at the last, when thy flesh and thy body are consumed, And say, How have I hated instruction, and my heart despised reproof; And have not obeyed the voice of my teachers, nor inclined mine ear to them that instructed me: I was almost in all evil in the midst of the congregation and assembly. Drink waters out of thine own cistern, and running waters out of thine own well. Let thy fountains be dispersed abroad, and rivers of waters in the streets. Let them be only thine own, and not strangers' with thee. Let thy fountain be blessed: rejoice with the wife of thy youth. Let her be as the loving hind and pleasant roe; let her breasts satisfy thee at all times; and let her ravished always with her love. And why wilt thou, my son, ravish the waters of a stranger woman, and embrace the bosom of a stranger? For the ways of man are before the eyes of the Lord, and he pondereth all his goings. His own iniquities shall take the wicked himself, and he shall be holden with the cords of sins. He shall die without instruction; and in the greatness of his folly he shall go astray. Prov.5:1-23.

2 - It is spiritually damning. In verse 22 of the preceding portion of scripture we find it stated that the man who transgresses after the manner of the sexual fool, the "cords", or the chains that bind him to it, by them shall he be spiritually ensnared. This is a spiritual law that follows after the manner of proposition that "you are what you eat."

The manner that God hath developed our spiritual and psychological characteristics is similar to the operating manner of a computer. All that we think and do comes originally from the abode of the subconscious. The subconscious is the "door" to and from the realm of the spirit. All ideas and creative activity come from the realm beyond that of the subconscious, transfer through the subconscious, enter the conscious, and then transmute [or, transfigure from thought energy into deed], into activities be they good or evil.

Your brain is like your computer in that what you download enters your memory bank to resurface upon the will of the spirit from whence the material came.

You may discern what spirit seeks access to your mind via the simple principals of realizing the laws of God and the laws of nature and by comparison evaluating its ideology via the World of Truth. If the spirit gains access to the mind [conscience,] and is not rejected but rather is entertained, it is not far from entering the heart which institutes the transmutation of its nature into the personality it so desires. Often, once one spirit gains entrance, it provides an "inroad" for other spirits of which area spiritually categorized as he is entering, for only by "justifying" them can he "justify" himself.

Once this has occurred, the creature is driven by the desires of the spirit within it. Having joined itself unto the theology and presence of the originator of the "download," it has thereby become "enslaved" to the ruler of its sub conscience, which supernaturally compels them to resist all Truth, and to wallow in the depravity of all sexual and perversions of the laws of God and nature. For such deeds provide the only source of temporary satiation to the victim, until the spirit returns again; perhaps this time with "friends."

Without the Spirit of God, represented by Christ, and sent by the Father we would have no contact with that which may be known as the Infinite Intelligence behind all of creation and the stipulations imposed. Thoughts are the implied intent behind the words that complicate their arranged formation of meaning.

Christ stated, Its is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing; the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life. But there are some of you that believe not. For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were that believed not, and who should betray him. And he said, Therefore his disciples said unto him, that no man can come unto me, except it were given unto him of my Father. Jn.6:63-65.

Unless God, through His Spirit speaks to your conscience via the channel of the sub conscience, your mind will never know that such a window of perception existed. The surest and indeed only way to summon the reasoning and will of God via the subconscious receiver is to feed your conscience with that whereof which He brings revelation thereto [that being His Word,] and prayer. Manifest desire to learn displayed by study and or meditation upon God's Word, combined with prayer, bring the "download" of the Spirit. Before Christ's crucifixion, He gathered His disciples and said unto them, But now I go my way to him that sent me; and none of you asketh me, Whither goest thou? But because I have said these things unto you, sorrow hath filled your heart. Nevertheless I tell you the truth; it is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you, but if I depart, I will send him unto you. And when he is come, he will prove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment: Of sin, because they believe not on me; Of righteousness, because I go to my Father, and ye see me no more; Of judgment, because the prince of this world is judged. I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now. Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth; for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak; and he will shew you things to come. He shall glorify me: for he shall receive of mine, and shall shew it unto you. All things that the Father hath are mine: Therefore said I, that he shall take of mine, and shall shew it unto you. Jn.16:5-15.

One of the things that the Lord said that the Spirit would bring was knowledge of that which belongeth unto Him. Once one realizes that which belongeth unto the Lord, that which "BeeZeeBub" or, the "Lord of the Dungpile" by interpretation has to offer its trivial obscene.

Yes, it is true that the devil took Christ up on top of an exceedingly high mountain and showed unto Him all the kingdoms of the world. Please note however that he showed Him the kingdoms of the "world", not the Kingdom of God! In essence satan in a moment's time [kind of like surfing the internet] showed unto the Lord all that which he possessed from the spiritually blind, to the sodomites, to the pedophiles, to the adulterers, to the whoremongers, to the whore, to the blasphemous, and said unto Him, "Behold my kingdom! I will make you king of all this if you will but bow and worship me!"

But the Lord looked at him. And said, "Get thee hence satan! Thou art an offense unto both me and my God!"

You see, when an individual creature taps into the Spirit of the source of our life, he begins to possess via the "download" of the Spirit the meaning behind the existence as well as the purpose and social value of its principals.

Realizing that all that which there is or ever more shall be comes from the Father of all creation within whose mind the finite existence of our "universe" is contained, one has not to look too far to "see" God the Father. Contained within each and everyone of us is the knowledge of good and evil. For instance, what man knoweth not that it is evil to defile his neighbor's wife? What group of men passing by a mercantile bent on robbing and raping a senior citizen do not realize that something wicked is occurring and they need to do something to stop it? What man if he sees his dog taking an illegitimate interest in his young daughter will not take steps to ensure that such wickedness ceases? Who would teach his son that if the peer pressure of the world said so via TV and radio today to engage in sodomy would encourage the fruit thereof in their offspring's life? Indeed, that which may be known of God's laws and nature's is clearly manifest within the minds of all as part of the spiritual composition that God has creatively instilled within them. When these laws are intentionally broken, it is the result of satanic persuasion which results in satanic bondage thereto.

There are three types of love mentioned in the Word of God:

1 - Eros - This is the love that is felt and enjoyed by the creatures as they ecstatically share each others benefits.

2 - Philemon - This love is the fundamental principle that binds family and friends together in harmonious accord.

3 - Agape - This love is the fulfillment of the greatest law of all, that being, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, all thy mind, and all thy soul. Realize that in Him you live move and have your being! Without Him you would have nothing to have and love for it would not be!

When you love the Lord with all your soul you will find that the purest of principals of life are the simplest to enjoy and make the most sense as well. Also, you will seek a mate that has "downloaded" the Spirit of God lest thou be found to be married to a moral despot with a conscience having been defiled and reprobate. Such is the way of an adulterous woman; she eateth, and wipeth her mouth, and saith, I have done no wickedness. Prov.30:20.

For, As a jewel of gold in a swine's snout, so is a fair woman which is without discretion. Pr.11:22.

And for those that have an ear to hear it is for this reason that; Marriage is honorable in all, and the bed undefiled: but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge. Heb.13:4.

You and Me And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works: Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching. Heb.10:24-25.

As I read these verses my mind goes back to the parable of the wicked servant that knew to do his Lord's will and did it not. As a result, he was beaten with many stripes. Now I can assure you that upon the day of reckoning I have no desire to be standing in the lot of the such like. Nor do I have any desire for God to take that which He had ordained for me to be given unto someone else who was willing while I was not.

There are two admonitions Paul gives in the preceding verses:

1 - Provoke one another unto love and good works, the word provoke means to cause or to facilitate unto being.

2 - We are to assemble one with another for the express purpose of exhortation.

Exhortation unto what? The persistence of resisting evil in our personal lives as well as the active creation of a standard of Truth unto which all that will may come. This is not only to be accomplished in spirit but in matters, but in politics, attributes as did our forefathers who believe the Constitution would test worthy of.

In order for a land to be led by righteous leaders, the principals of both spiritual and political guidelines must be manifest. If there is no manifestation of the previous, a standard of Truth and the righteousness that follows as a result will cease to exist. The truth and righteousness cease, there is a void created that will be filled with not but falsehood and corruption.

In America today we see the results that occur when Truth is extinguished and righteousness neglected. We find that we are left with preachers that lack the courage to stand up against that which is sinful and politicians that create laws that bring we the people under bondage to laws that take that which were our God given rights instituted by our Christian forefathers "reinterpreted" and trample them underfoot.

Up until now this manuscript has dealt entirely with the spiritual aspects of Truth and righteousness, but now it's time to get political. When going political, there is no better place to start than the Constitution provided by our forefathers as a direct action taken by our founding forefathers to the libertes granted us not be usurped nor tainted with ideologies contrary to freedom, Truth, and righteousness:

In Congress, July 4, 1776 The unanimous Declaration of the thirteen United States of America

When in the Course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation. We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness. That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just Powers from the consent of the governed -- That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate that Governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly experience has shewn that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same Object evinces a design to reduce them under absolute Despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such Government, and to provide new guards for their future security -- Such has been the patient sufferance of these Colonies; and such is now the necessity which constrains them to alter their former Systems of Government. -- The history of the present King of Great Britain is a history of repeated injuries and usurpations, all having direct object the establishment of an absolute Tyranny over these States. To prove this, let facts be submitted to a candid world.

1. He has refused his Assent to Laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good.

2. He has forbidden his Governors to pass Laws of immediate and pressing importance, unless suspended in their operation till his Assent should be obtained; and when so suspended, he has utterly neglected to attend them.

3. He has refused to pass other Laws for the accommodation of large districts of people, unless those people would relinquish the right of Representation in the Legislature, a right inestimable to them and formidable to tyrants only.

4. He has called together legislative bodies at places unusual, uncomfortable, and distant from the depository of their Public Records, for the sole purpose of fatiguing them into compliance with his measures.

5. He has dissolved Representative Houses repeatedly, for opposing with manly firmness his invasions on the rights of the people.

6. He has refused for a long time, after such dissolutions, to cause others to be elected; whereby the Legislative Powers, incapable of Annihilation, have returned to the People at large; and such is now the necessity which constrains them to alter their former Systems of Government -- The history of the present King of Great Britain is a history of repeated injuries and usurpations, all having direct object the establishment of an absolute Tyranny over these States. To prove this, let facts be submitted to a candid world.

7. He has endeavored to prevent the population of these States; for that purpose obstructing the Laws for Naturalization of Foreigners; refusing to pass others to encourage their migrations hither, and raising the conditions of new Appropriations of Lands.

8. He has obstructed the Administration of Justice, by refusing his Assent to Laws for establishing Judiciary Powers.

9. He has made Judges dependent on his Will alone, for the tenure of their offices, and the amount and payment of their salaries.

10. He has erected a multitude of New Offices, and sent hither swarms of Officers to harass our People, and eat out their substance.

11. He has kept among us, in times of peace, Standing Armies without Consent of our Legislatures.

12. He has affected to render the Military independent of and superior to the Civil Power.

13. He has combined with others to subject us to a jurisdiction foreign to our constitution, and unacknowledged by our laws; giving his Assent to their Acts of pretended Legislation:

14. For quartering large bodies of armed troops among us;

15. For protecting them, by a mock Trial, from Punishment for any Murders which they should commit on the Inhabitants of these States;

16. For cutting off our Trade with all parts of the world;

17. For imposing Taxes on us without our Consent.

18. For depriving us in many cases, of the benefits of Trial by Jury;

19. For transporting us beyond seas to be tried for pretended offenses;

20. For abolishing the free system of English Laws in a neighboring Province, establishing therein an Arbitrary government, and enlarging its Boundaries so as to render it at once an example and fit instrument for introducing the same absolute rule into these Colonies;

21. For taking away our Charters, abolishing our most valuable Laws, and altering fundamentally the forms of our Governments;

22. For suspending our own Legislature, and declaring themselves invested with power to legislate for us in all cases whatsoever.

23. He has abdicated Government here, by declaring us out of his Protection and waging War against us.

24. He has plundered our seas, ravaged our Coasts, burnt our towns, and destroyed the lives of our people.

25. He is at this time transporting large Armies of foreign Mercenaries to complete the works of death, desolation and tyranny, already begun with circumstances of Cruelty and perfidy scarcely paralleled in the most barbarous ages, and totally unworthy the Head of a civilized nation.

26. He has constrained our fellow Citizens taken Captive on the high Seas to bear Arms against their Country, to become the executors of their friends and Brethren, or to fall themselves by their Hands.

27. He has excited domestic insurrections amongst us, and has endeavored to bring on the inhabitants of our frontiers, the merciless Indian Savages, whose known rule of warfare, is an indiscriminating destruction of all ages, sexes and conditions.

In every stage of these Oppressions we have Petitioned for Redress in the most humble terms: Our repeated Petitions have been answered only by repeated injury. A Prince, whose character is thus marked by every act which may define a Tyrant, is unfit to be the ruler of a free people.

Nor have we been wanting in attention to our British brethren. We have warned them from time to time of attempts by their legislature to extend an unwarrantable jurisdiction over us. We have reminded them of the circumstances of our emigration and settlement here. We have appealed to their native justice and magnanimity, and we have conjured them by the ties of our common kindred to disavow these usurpations, which, would inevitably interrupt our connections and correspondence. They too have been deaf to the voice of justice and consanguinity. We must, therefore acquiesce in the necessity which denounces our Separation, and hold them, as we hold the rest of mankind, Enemies in War, in Peace Friends. We, therefore, the Representatives of the United States of America, in General Congress, Assembled, appealing to the Supreme Judge of the world for the rectitude of our intentions, do, in the Name, and by Authority of the good People of these Colonies, solemnly publish and declare, That these United Colonies are, and of Right ought to be Free and Independent States; that they are absolved from all Allegiance to the British Crown, and that all political connection between them and the State of Great Britain, is and ought to be totally dissolved; and that as Free and Independent States, they have full Power to levy War, conclude Peace, contract Alliances, establish Commerce, and to do all other Acts and Things which Independent States may of right do.

And for the support of this Declaration, with a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our Lives, our Fortunes and our sacred Honor.

As you can see our forefathers were in no way shape or form ashamed nor abashed at the mention and admission of the reality in their belief of a Creator. It was this knowledge and fear thereof that caused these men to not only rebel against their current state of affairs, but also state that it is a right and a duty for all citizens to stand up, if necessary during the need so arise again. Although I am not formally making a request to a call for arms, I am stating that our current form of legislation is in need of review, repair, and the institution of a new political party formed by the people and for the people, not the current state of corruption founded by a corrupt group of men who serve lobbyists, foreign nations, and their own bellies, and is the requirement to upset the unjust monopoly of the two groups of political parties that have become despots to the Constitution and manipulators of the people. Let us examine our God given inalienable rights. [Or, those which can never be taken away except when we permit it,] in light of our Constitution and compare that which was written to evermore be for this nation and evaluate that which it has become as a result of Godless men that have usurped our rights to further serve themselves and their "god" at our expense.

We are guaranteed the right to life liberty and the pursuit of happiness. In order to accomplish this and maintain such things one must be able to freely mobilize in accordance to one's need of self preservation. In today's society in suburban and rural areas the right to be able to transport one's self to and fro from the destinations that provide one's livelihood are imperative to each and every citizen. When this necessity is denied, the outcomes on a whole generally create the need for one to commit crime or go on welfare neither of which are beneficial unto the taxpayers [We The People] nor the receipt of the denial thereof. The act of denying one's right to mobilize to maintain sustenance for living for years is inexcusable when a hefty fine and -or- prison is sufficient and more serving of the public's interest as an individual is then at least capable of paying the retribution which ought be invested in the taxpayers' interests locally not in another city on the other side of the state.

This right that was previously mentioned [Life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness] was the foundation of the grievances held against the British. As read the list of grievances 1-27 how many mirrored images can you find in today's Republican - Democrat controlled Government? You should be able to find quite a few: Especially with old Clinton passing through leaving more dead bodies than John Gotti behind in his wake.

Because the current legislators find it fit to give a man that lied repetitiously to the United States people a pension for such acts as perjury;

Because the current legislators find it fit to continue to bring narcotic into the country and condemn the youth thereof to felony convictions resulting in loss of every right guaranteed them as American citizens until death; [Though they vehemently deny it, we know who brings the drugs in.]

Because the current legislators find it fit to pardon from investigation and prosecution their own; Because the current legislators find it fit to create laws after their own wicked conscience rather than the voice of the majority;

Because the current legislators find it fit to force American men and women to wear a foreign uniform upon their demand without the consent of the people;

Because the current legislators find it fit to force their religion of humanism and deny the voice of the God fearing man; it is well time that we the people take stock in the future of America's freedom and create an alternative to the cowardness and the corruption set before us as a nation.

Indeed, the very act of giving a man a felony conviction for a non-violent crime is a detrimental to a society as promoting mad cow disease which they also do through the sodomite lifestyle that generates the AIDS virus. The laws of nature and the laws of God are not meant to be tampered with. Even as a cow is not meant to be fed meat lest they go mad. Currently, it is estimated that 1 out of 50 blacks are HIV POSITIVE and 1 out 160 whites are HIV POSITIVE! These are that group of characters are the predominant carriers thereof?

As a result of their fill America with drugs to destroy the future of her youth with felony convictions campaign the prison industry is one of the largest in the land!

Currently there are millions of us who have had our infringed upon and even stolen by a corrupt group of men known as Congress and the Supreme Court.
